

NOMINATION FOR PRESIDENT-ELECT

BC Conference

The position of President is a key position in our Conference. This year the President is elected from among members of Conference for a term of two years, June 2018 to May 2020. This person also serves on the Conference Executive as President-Elect from the time of election until the beginning of the Presidential term.

PRESIDENT'S ROLE

BC Conference Executive

The President of Conference is elected by the General Meeting of Conference to act as Servant-Leader, to provide spiritual and pastoral leadership, to ensure the integrity of the Conference Executive's process, and to represent the Conference to other partners and outside parties.

1. The duties of Conference President are described in The Manual D.3.4.d:
 - a. formally opening the meetings of the Conference;
 - b. presiding and keeping order at meetings;
 - c. taking votes and announcing the results;
 - d. directing the Conference's business;
 - e. ensuring the names of members of the order of ministry transferred into and out of the Conference are reported to the Conference immediately after the roll is called at the annual meeting; and
 - f. fulfilling other responsibilities as assigned by the Conference or the General Council.
2. The President chairs Conference General Meeting and Conference Executive meetings, keeping deliberations fair, open and thorough but also orderly and timely.
 - a. The President plans and proposes Executive meeting agenda in consultation with the Executive Secretary, and General Meeting agenda with the Agenda and Planning Committee.
 - b. The President may bring in resource persons to facilitate various aspects of the agenda.
 - c. The President is responsible for planning and implementing regular Executive evaluation.
 - d. The President ensures that the Conference Executive acts consistently with its own values and policies and those requirements legitimately imposed upon it from outside the Conference.
3. The President makes decisions that fall within the topics covered by Conference Executive policies on Governance Process and Conference Executive-Staff Relationships, except where the Conference Executive specifically delegates portions of this authority to others, using any reasonable interpretation of the provisions in these policies.
 - a. The President does not supervise or direct the Executive Secretary or vice versa.
4. The President represents the Conference to partners and outside parties in announcing Conference Executive positions and in interpreting the work of BC Conference. The President may delegate this authority but remains accountable for its use.
