- President’s Address President Dan Chambers spoke on “Gratitude, Integration and the Way Forward.” After expressing gratitude to the many people and groups throughout the Conference who have been so faithful, he suggested that Christian work and contemplation need to be integrated. He closed with a story of how a congregation worked together to help a hummingbird out of the church sanctuary. Their cooperation serves as an image of the church as it moves into an unknown future.
- Theme Address Marilyn Legge’s theme message emphasized “justice-love” as the face of faith. A reading from Isaiah and a series of challenging questions and images about faithful public witness were the focal point for table group conversations.

- Conference Executive Accountability Report Jacob Black-Lock and Robyn Green introduced the Conference Executive Accountability report with a short video and a description about the way the Executive works.
- Leadership Focus Doug Goodwin reported on how the establishment of Effective Leadership as the priority of the Conference has shaped the staffing and focus of the Conference. To date the focus has been on building a staff team in support of personnel work and leadership development. The next step is to develop ways of providing support services for the whole “life-cycle” of ministry personnel.
- Treana Duncan spoke on the recent “Sowing Promise, Growing Leaders” leadership training event held by the Conference. She also explained how the Personnel Team of staff were working to cooperatively provide support services for personnel and the Presbyteries.
- Camp Future Terry Harrison updated the meeting on the accomplishments of the Camp Future Project. She noted that the capital development projects at Camp Fircom and Camp Pringle came in on schedule, within a 6% margin on the original $10.5 million budget. She also noted that the Moorecroft camp property was sold earlier this year to the Regional District of Nanaimo for $4.8 million to be used as a public park, protected by a conservation covenant with the Nature Conservancy of Canada.

Finance Doug Goodwin introduced the Ten Year Financial Vision adopted by the Conference Executive in November 2009. The Vision structures the Conference's finances in three "streams" (Core, Conference Camping, and ProVision) to provide sustainability while also being open to emerging possibilities. Conference financial decisions are not arbitrary but shaped by the Vision.

Doug Goodwin described the ProVision funds, presently approximately $5 million. These funds are to be used for work that is not "core" to the Conference work. Presently these funds primarily benefit the Presbyteries that contribute to them but benefit to the whole Conference increases through time.

Mark Paetkau, Chair of the Finance Council, described the general financial health of the Conference as very good. The recent financial audit highlighted the improvements over the past years in the Conference's finances and financial management. Mark reviewed the investment income of the Conference, the Camp Future Project monies, and the changes in the operating budget over the past few years.

Emergent Church Debra Bowman spoke on the Executive's desire to be attentive to emergent issues and possibilities in the Conference.

Throughout the report questions and comments from the floor were received and discussed.

Dinner The meeting adjourned for dinner at 5:40 PM. Hilde Seal offered a prayer of thanksgiving.

Business Committee Following dinner the President reconvened the court. Jenny Carter introduced the business that was to come before the court. She also reminded the court of how the "Proposal" system works, allowing the President flexibility in conducting the discussions around proposals before moving into parliamentary procedure to make final decisions.

Proposal 2011-01
"Social Justice" Jenny Carter introduced Conference Proposal 2011-01, "Social Justice." Using the "proposal" discussion format, conversation regarding the desire to ensure social justice issues were a part of each Conference General Meeting was held. No changes to the language of the original proposal were suggested.

*M/S/CARRIED (Jenny Carter, Doug Goodwin) that:
BC Conference consistently include time and attention on social justice issues in the agenda of Conference.*

Proposal 2011-02
"Ethically Raised Meat" Jenny Carter introduced Conference Proposal 2011-02, "Ethically Raised Meat." The original proposal read "that only certified ethically raised meats be eaten at future BC Conference gatherings." Using the "proposal" discussion format, extensive conversation regarding the proposal took place. Several suggestions for changes to the wording of the proposal were not adopted.

It was agreed that the final wording would clarify that the meetings referred to would mean only the Conference General Meetings.

M/S/DEFEATED (Jenny Carter, Doug Goodwin) that: only certified ethically raised meats be eaten at future General Meetings of BC Conference.

Conference Proposal
2011-03, "Campus Ministry"

Jenny Carter introduced Conference Proposal 2011-03, "Campus Ministry."

The original proposal read "that BC Conference commit to fully funding Campus Ministries at UVic and UBC, to be funded by increased presbytery allocations."

Positive support for the proposal focused on the benefit these ministries provided for students and the university communities at large. Concerns were expressed about the cost of funding these ministries, whether they should be supported by the Conference or more locally, and the lack of comparable support at other provincial universities and colleges.

Presently the Conference is committed to supporting these ministries with $72,500 annually. The Finance Council provided information regarding the additional cost of supporting these ministries if they were fully funded, their staff costs were fully funded, or they received the funding that had previously been supplied by Mission Support Grants.

Discussion ended with the hour of the day.

Proposals 2011-05 & 2011-06, "Theological Education and Formation for Ministry in BC Conference"	The President invited Michelle Slater to speak to the issues raised by Conference Proposals 2011-05 and 2011-06 regarding theological education and ministry formation. Due to the limited amount of time available for discussion, Michelle proposed the following as a replacement for the two earlier Proposals: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. that BC Conference establish a Task Force to develop an integrated plan for supporting theological education and formation for ministry (both lay and ordered) in BC Conference, including (but not limited to) VST and Naramata Centre and that such a Task Force have a working budget of up to $40,000; and that 2. the Task Force report to the 82nd General Meeting of BC Conference 2012 with strategies and funding sources; and that 3. BC Conference refer Proposals 2011-05 and 2011-06 to the Task Force for consideration in their work. Following discussion the Executive Secretary, Doug Goodwin, suggested that the general intent of the Proposals fits well into present plans for looking at overall support for the life-cycle of ministry personnel. Instead of working on a detailed motion it might be adequate to note in the Minutes that the meeting feels this is an important issue to be worked on over the next year and that a report to the General Meeting in 2012 on progress made over the year would be appropriate. By a show of hands the meeting agreed that a note in the Minutes and a report to the next General Meeting was adequate.
Settlement Committee	Brenda Fawkes presented the Settlement Committee Report. She noted that this was a significant year for the Settlement Committee because of changes to General Council policies that made settlement optional. M/S/CARRIED (Brenda Fawkes, Shannon Tennant) that: the Settlement Committee Report be received for information. M/S/CARRIED (Brenda Fawkes, Shannon Tennant) that: the Ministerial Standing Report be approved.
